

Please don't run broadband signals over powerlines in the 2-80 MHz band if it is going to effectively end shortwave radio reception. Take some other avenue of approach. There is too much good stuff on shortwave.